

Ways to Say I Love You

Magnifying glass- the closer I look, the more I find to love

A pyramid paperweight- you'll always be one of my life's greatest mysteries.

A pair of gloves in his size- we fit like a glove

A bottle of wine- our love only improves with age

A basket with his favorite aromas (cologne, aftershave, scented soap, massage oil, candles, etc.) – you fill up my senses.

A crystal ball – I can't imagine the future without you

A massager (with heat) – for the man who still makes me warm and tingly globe- in the entire world, you're the only one I love

A statue of a bird in flight – You've shown me how to soar

Two magnets – the attraction between us never fades

A kaleidoscope – even after all these years the possibilities with you are endless

A shaving mirror- your looking at the love of my life

A triple photograph frame with photos of yourself at different times of the day – morning, noon, and night, you're always in my heart!

A scarf – consider this a soft hug for the man I love

A pair of binoculars- I never tire of bringing you closer

A basket with your photo and his favorite treats, such as chocolates or coffees – of all life's simple pleasures, I'm most addicted to you.
